The City of Modesto is unique compared to most other cities hit by the foreclosure crisis. The crisis for Modesto is not centralized to a specific neighborhood; every socio-economic group has been affected by this crisis. The housing market exploded in 2004 with the migration of families from the San Francisco Bay Area with home prices peaking in December of 2005. Families saw an option for more affordable housing with many options for financing in the Modesto area. Standard national averages show that sub-prime loans are more frequent for minorities within low income neighborhoods. The City of Modesto minority, low income neighborhoods were severely affected by predatory lending. The predatory lending in Modesto had an impact throughout the city. The low income minority neighborhoods were hit the hardest, however no neighborhood escaped the problem. Hit significantly harder than other areas of the country, foreclosure problems throughout the City of Modesto continue to affect the families within our community. Foreclosure filings are continuing to rise and families are having difficulty finding alternatives to refinance out of sub-prime loans. With countries economic problems, the crisis only seems to worsen in Modesto.
